THE REPUBLICANS
DO NOT APPROVE

Former Assistant U. S. District Attorney Allan on the Course of Roosevelt.

Former Assistant United States District Attorney Edgar Allan thinks the course of President Roosevelt in regard to the negroes will materially weaken his chances of securing a second term. In discussing the matter yesterday he said: "I do not fear the social equality nightmare as some of the editors seem to fear it, but I know that, irrespective of party, the white people of the South are sadly disappointed and distressed at the course of President Roosevelt in regard to the administration's policy in this part of the country."

"There may be a few Republicans who do not express themselves in that way, but they are holding their tongues that they may hold their offices."

"This stirring up of the question of black and white will, I believe, make friends for the Southern States, which have amended their Constitutions, in the North. The commercial idea of the North will be the means of obtaining for the South the sanction of northern Republicans."

"A commercial nightmare will sway ninety per cent. of the Republicans of the North."

"It is also a fact that the Republicans of the North have never failed to desert themselves in order to kill a disturbing element. I believe, make friends for the Southern States, which have amended their Constitutions, in the North. The commercial idea of the North will be the means of obtaining for the South the sanction of northern Republicans."

"The Republican managers are bound to realize the weakening force of the candidacy of Mr. Roosevelt under these conditions."

"The Union veterans, I believe, have also found out that promises have been made for their care and broken for their hope. In the case of the Norfolk postmaster, a Wisconsin veteran, a captain wounded on the field for the Union, was turned down for a man who served the United States before the war and served the Confederacy during it."

DR. WOMBLE DEAD
IN BALTIMORE, MD.

Son of Distinguished Virginian and Received His Early Education in Richmond.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BALTIMORE, MD., Jan. 20.—Dr. Pembroke M. Womble, who died at his home here early this morning, was born on January 2, 1827, at Smithfield, Va. His father, John Womble, was one of Virginia's most influential citizens. His mother was Alice Mitchell, daughter of Colonel Mitchell, of the British Army, who was exiled for his part in connection with the Emmet Insurrection in 1798.

Dr. Womble's parents moved to Richmond, Va., in 1834, where Dr. Womble received his early education at a private school. He afterward entered the University of Virginia, graduating in 1845, and then studied medicine at Jefferson College in Philadelphia. Dr. Womble came to Baltimore in 1848. The doctor had one of the largest practices in this city.

SALARY BILL IN THE HOUSE

Matter Creates Much More Lively Discussion.

TO REQUIRE HEAT IN CARS

Such a Bill Offered in House—Minority Report in Norfolk Election Case. Senate Recommends Harman Bill with View to Perfecting It.

The session of the House yesterday was a dreary one, being devoted almost entirely to the further consideration of the bill fixing the salaries of State officers. The consideration of the measure was not completed, and but few changes were made in the report of the committee.

A bill was offered in the House requiring steam and electric railways to properly heat and ventilate their passenger cars, and it was referred to the Committee on Roads and Internal Navigation. Mr. Cabell, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, submitted the minority report of that body in the Norfolk city contested election cases, which recommends the seating of the contestants, Messrs. Lambeth and Bibb. The report, which was signed by Messrs. Cabell, West and C. C. Baker, was ordered printed.

The Senate session was almost entirely taken up in considering the Harman habitual drunkards bill, and it was finally recommitted to the Courts of Justice Committee, with the view to perfecting its provisions. The Senate passed several local bills.

Both bodies will meet at noon to-day.

The Senate.

The Senate met without prayer. There was no debate over any of the measures until the act to provide for committeemen to private hospitals or Sanitariums of inebriates, opium eaters or persons addicted to other drug habits was reached. Senator Harman, of Tazewell, the patron of the bill, accepted an amendment proposed by the Committee for Courts of Justice in relation to how the estate of an inebriate who owns property shall be managed during the time of his confinement in a hospital. Senator Harvey said he thought that the provision in the bill for the Court to appoint a person to administer the estate of an inebriate smacked of paternalism and he wanted to know the reason for this.

Senator Harman in reply stated that he was not wedded to this feature of the bill. It was proposed by the committee and while he had accepted it, he was willing that the Senate should decide the matter as it might in the judgment of the members be deemed best.

A SPICY DEBATE.

Senator Barksdale said he could not see why a man should be incarcerated for a sufficient length of time to wear him of the habit of using drugs and to cure him of the desire for drink.

Mr. Barksdale moved to amend so as to make the term of confinement four months. He thought that if a person should be confined in an institution for that length of time and the treatment he received should prove beneficial such a person would voluntarily remain in a hospital or Sanitarium for a long time.

This amendment was adopted.

Other amendments were prepared and the bill was recommitted in order that it might be perfected.

BILLS REPORTED.

Bills to amend the charter of the town of Orange and to amend section 101 of the Code in relation to street car lines running through school property were reported from committees, the first named act was passed under a suspension of the rules, on the motion of Mr. Shackelford.

Mr. Tyler introduced a bill to authorize the Board of Visitors of William and Mary College to use the appropriation of $5,000 heretofore made to be used, if deemed advisable for the establishment of some other lighting system than an electric lighting plant.

Mr. Tyler also introduced a bill to amend the charter of the City of Newport News. The bill repeals section 65 of the Charter.

HOUSE BILLS PASSED.

House Session.

The House was called to order at 12 o'clock M. by the Speaker and prayer was offered by Rev. Geo. Cooper, D. D., of the Baptist Church. Mr. Cabell of Danville offered the minority report in the Norfolk city contested election case, and it was ordered printed. The report is signed by Messrs. Cabell, West and C. C. Baker and recommends the seating of the contestants, Messrs. Lambeth and Bibb, the contestants. The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill fixing the salaries of State officers, and Mr. Whitehead moved to limit the salary of the Commissioner of Agriculture to $2,000, cutting off the paying of his fee to this officer. The amendment was opposed by Mr. Featherston, chairman of the Agricultural Committee. The amendment was agreed to, Mr. Churchman moved to increase the salary of the Librarian of the House from $75 to $500. This amendment was advocated by Mr. Churchman and others and adopted. Chairman Booz offered an amendment fixing the salaries of the officers of the various State hospitals by law, instead of leaving the matter to the several boards, and it was adopted without division.

Mr. Catton offered an amendment raising the salary of the assistants to the Corporation Committee, and increasing the contingent expenses of the body, so as to conform to the report of the Roads Committee on these subjects. Mr. Catton made a strong speech for his amendment and it was adopted by Mr. Whitehead and Mr. Catton. There was a spicy cross-firing among some of the Senators.

Senator Harman said he was not wedded to any particular length of time for confinement. The whole object of the measure was to place a person in a hospital for a sufficient length of time to wear him of the habit of using drugs and to cure him of the desire for drink.

Mr. Barksdale moved to amend so as to make the term of confinement four months. He thought that if a person should be confined in an institution for that length of time and the treatment he received should prove beneficial such a person would voluntarily remain in a hospital or Sanitarium for a long time.

ARE AFTER THE SPORTS

Cock-Fighting in Henrico County Must Be Stopped.

FIFTEEN MEN ARE FINED

And Five More Must Pay Up Later on! Negro Woman Asks a Thousand Dollars for Alleged False Imprisonment.

It is the purpose of the authorities of Henrico county to suppress cock-fighting and sports of a similar character, which, though popular and prevalent, are nevertheless violations of the law. Prompt arrests and just as prompt punishment will follow any discoveries in this connection.

Before Squire Lewis yesterday there appeared some fifteen young men, who on Thursday morning were enjoying a most ravishing and exciting cock-fight, when the officers swooped down upon them. Twenty in all were arrested, but about five of them didn't appear in court. Squire Lewis will see to them later. The others made no effort to defend themselves. In the case of some of them they did not appear to know of the law against cock-fighting. They were fined $250 each.

Speaking of the matter last night, Squire Lewis said the practice would be broken up wherever it was discovered. It is a violation of the law, and as such it will have to be made an end of if possible.

A rather peculiar case was begun yesterday in the Circuit Court of Henrico. It appears that some time ago a Mrs. Kain, of Henrico, missed about $40 from her house. Suspicion rested upon Fannie Dandridge, a negro servant, and finally Mrs. Kain told the woman that if she would return the money nothing would be done with her. Fannie, it is alleged, said she had spent about half of it, but would willingly give back the remainder. When Mrs. Kain went to her house, however, no money was found, and the next thing was a warrant for Fannie. She was tried before a magistrate and discharged.

Now the negro woman sues Mrs. Kain for $1,000 damages for unlawful arrest and imprisonment. After argument by either side the case was continued until to-day.

Some of the residents of Chestnut Hill, it is said, are much disgruntled at the fact that the districting bill in the Legislature makes a "district" out of that section of the world. They declare that it means more taxes, but absolutely no increase of benefits. One or two petitions are being gotten up, and it is possible that the Henrico representatives in the Legislature will be asked to introduce a bill repealing the new law, insofar as it applies to Chestnut Hill.

A man named Aaron Kinney was arrested yesterday by Constable Franklin, charged with being a vagrant lunatic.

STATEHOOD BILL

Quay Succeeds in Getting Favorable Committee Report.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, January 20.—The Senate Committee on the Organization of the Executive Departments, of which Senator Quay is chairman, has ordered a favorable report upon the statehood bill offered by the Senator as an amendment to appropriation bills. The committee was not formally called together, but Senator Quay saw the members on the floor of the Senate and secured their assent to the favorable reporting of the bill as a rider to the supply bills.

All the members of the committee who are in the city gave their assent, except Senator Beveridge, who, as the leader of the opposition to the bill, of course objected. Senator Wetmore, who is a member of the committee is opposed to the bill, but he is absent from the city and could not be consulted.

Christian Endeavorers to Meet To-Morrow Night at Third Christian Church.

A union meeting of all the Christian Endeavor Societies of this city and Manchester will be held to-morrow night at the Third Christian Church to commemorate the twenty-second anniversary of the origin of Christian Endeavor. The program will consist of special music and number of short addresses. A warm invitation is extended to young people to be present.

By Mr. Owens: Making it a misdemeanor for any electric street railway company carrying passengers in the State of Virginia to operate their cars through any city or county without first providing them with sufficient heat for the health and comfort of passengers.

By Mr. Stearnes: To repeal chapter 153, Act of Assembly, extra session 1901, relating to the incorporation of the city of Newport News.

By various members: Petitions praying passage of the Mann liquor bill.

PRODUCE ASSOCIATION

Report of Committee Adopted and Officers Elected.

At a meeting held Thursday night in the rooms of the Travelers' Protective Association, the produce merchants of the city adopted the report of its special committee appointed to revise the constitution and by-laws of the old exchange, and formally organized the Richmond Fruit and Produce Association. An excellent attendance was present and much enthusiasm was manifested.

The association, as stated heretofore, is organized for the mutual benefit of the trade. Through it there will be put into operation a better credit and rebate system; steps will be taken to secure more advantageous railroad rates, and so on. The organization will be conducted along the line of the numerous produce exchanges scattered throughout the country.

In the election of officers the following were chosen:

President, Mr. William Jenkins; Vice-President, Mr. George McMillan; Treasurer, Mr. Walter Cronshaw. The Board of Directors is as follows: C. E. Richards, Joseph Wallerstein, B. Bowman, M. W. Moncreux and Eugene Robinson.

Judge Witt Improves.

The condition of Judge Samuel B. Witt, who was operated upon at the Virginia Hospital on Thursday, was reported as very much improved last night. He is getting along nicely and his condition is altogether satisfactory to those who hope and believe he will soon be a well man.
